 - ☐ This opinion has been established on the basis of a translation from the original language into the following language , which is the language of a translation furnished for the purposes of international search (under Rules 12.3 and 23.1(b)).
2. With regard to any nucleotide and/or amino acid sequence disclosed in the international application and necessary to the claimed invention, this opinion has been established on the basis of:
 - a. type of material:
 - ☐ a sequence listing
 - ☐ table(s) related to the sequence listing
 - b. format of material:
 - ☐ in written format
 - ☐ in computer readable form
 - c. time of filing/furnishing:
 - ☐ contained in the international application as filed.
 - ☐ filed together with the international application in computer readable form.
 - ☐ furnished subsequently to this Authority for the purposes of search.
3. ☐ In addition, in the case that more than one version or copy of a sequence listing and/or table relating thereto has been filed or furnished, the required statements that the information in the subsequent or additional copies is identical to that in the application as filed or does not go beyond the application as filed, as appropriate, were furnished.

Box No. II Priority

1. ☒ The following document has not been furnished: ✓
- ☒ copy of the earlier application whose priority has been claimed (Rule 43*bis*.1 and 66.7(a)). ✓
- ☐ translation of the earlier application whose priority has been claimed (Rule 43*bis*.1 and 66.7(b)).
- Consequently it has not been possible to consider the validity of the priority claim. This opinion has nevertheless been established on the assumption that the relevant date is the claimed priority date.
2. ☐ This opinion has been established as if no priority had been claimed due to the fact that the priority claim has been found invalid (Rules 43*bis*.1 and 64.1). Thus for the purposes of this opinion, the international filing date indicated above is considered to be the relevant date.
3. Additional observations, if necessary:

Re Item V.

- 1 The following document is referred to in this communication: ✓
D1 : WO 02/13590 A (MATSUSHITA ELECTRIC IND CO LTD) 14 February
2002 (2002-02-14) ✓
- 2 Independent claim 1
 - 2.1 Document D1, which is considered to represent the most relevant state of the art, discloses (the references in parenthesis applying to this document):
"A component mounting sequence optimizing method in component mounting (page 2, line 23 - page 3, line 4) with use of a component holding head having a plurality of component holding members (page 99, lines 9 - 24; figure 44)"
From this, the subject-matter of independent claim 1 differs in that:
"the holding head also comprises a component image pickup section"
The subject-matter of claim 1 is therefore novel (Article 33(2) PCT).
 - 2.2 The problem to be solved by the present invention may be regarded as:
"how to optimize the mounting of components using the component image pickup section provided on the head".
 - 2.3 The solution to this problem proposed in claim 1 of the present application is considered as involving an inventive step (Article 33(3) PCT) for the following reasons:
"the method comprises comparing conveyance times with recognition times and determining a mounting sequence on basis of the result of the comparison. This is possible only after realizing that recognition and conveyance are independent steps, that do not need to be performed one after the other if there is an image pickup section on the conveyance head. In the prior art there is no indication of this solution".
 - 2.4 Claims 2, 3 are dependent on claim 1 and as such also meet the requirements of the PCT with respect to novelty and inventive step.

3 Independent claims 4, 7 and 10

Although claims 4,7 and 10 have been drafted as separate independent claims, they appear to relate effectively to the same subject-matter as independent claim 1. It would therefore appear appropriate to amend these claims as dependent on claim 1.
